

ACRO SKILLS: WORKING WITH OTHERS AND COMMUNICATION

Respect

Is about:

- Being responsible
- Being aware of the needs and feelings of others
- Being able to listen to and value the opinions of others
- Valuing our environment and resources
- Understanding and accepting each others beliefs and cultures
- Accepting and celebrating people's differences
- Being honest and trustworthy
- Celebrating our own and others achievements

Learners will:

- Listen to others, respond appropriately and sensitively
- Be kind and thoughtful in what is said and done
- Approach learning with an open mind
- Feel happy and secure and do what they can to help others feel the same way
- Take responsibility for the school environment and the wider world
- Care for both mind and body

We will provide:

- Opportunities to learn about different cultures and the beliefs of others
- Role models and high expectations
- Opportunities to celebrate achievements
- Support when it is needed
- Opportunities for children to be involved in the wider community ie clubs, events, competitions, inter school and community events
- A listening culture
- Opportunities for reflection

We are a Rights Respecting School

Right 12- You have the right to give your opinion and for everyone to listen and take it seriously.

Right 19- You have the right to be protected from being hurt and mistreated, in body or mind.

Right 30- You have the right to practice your own culture, language and religion-or any you choose, minority and indigenous groups need special protection of this right.
